

French-related MRU Awards:

Donna Cox Memorial Award

Type: Other

Value: Variable

Number: One

Eligibility: Awarded to a full-time student who will be enrolled in the second, third, or fourth year of any program in the upcoming fall semester. Student must have completed a Mount Royal University French course in the current academic year.

Criteria: 1) Outstanding performance in any French course

Application: Nominated award - application not required

Robert Spence Memorial Scholarship

Type: Scholarship

Value: Variable (50 per cent of average full-time tuition, indexed to match any annual increase in tuition)

Number: Variable

Eligibility: Awarded to a full-time student who will be enrolled in the second, third or fourth year of any program in the upcoming fall semester. The applicant must be a Canadian citizen.

Criteria:

- 1) Academic proficiency - minimum GPA of 2.7
- 2) Extracurricular activities - community or volunteer involvement
- 3) Financial need
- 4) A short essay of 500 words or less, outlining (a) career goals, (b) academic goals and (c) any French language experience the student may have - including French spoken at home, French language study or previous enrollment in a French immersion / bilingual program

Application: Must be accompanied by an essay as outlined above. Application available online

Award of the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada / Association des universités et collèges du Canada (AUCC)

Queen Elizabeth II Silver Jubilee Endowment Fund for Study in a Second Official Language Award (link to:<https://juno.aucc.ca/wes/hes.aspx?pg=934&oth=0005122011>)

Fields of study: All disciplines, except translation.

Eligibility:

- Applications are by nomination by the candidate's university. Each member institution of the AUCC may nominate only one candidate and the application must be duly endorsed by that institution;
- Candidates must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada;
- Candidates must be currently enrolled in the second or third year of their first bachelor degree program. Candidates attending an institution in Quebec can be enrolled in the first year of their first bachelor degree program;
- Candidates must have sufficient ability in their second official language to pursue their studies in that language.

Selection: Preference will be given to candidates who wish to study at another educational institution, in a milieu in which their second official language is predominant.

Value and duration of the Awards:

- $7,000 CAD tenable for one year;
- Transportation expenses for one return trip (economy) between the recipient's place of residence and the university to be attended;
- A letter of congratulations signed by the Minister of Canadian Heritage.

Number of Awards: Up to 3 awards at the bachelor degree level.

For more information: Contact awards@aucc.ca.

Please note also the availability of the Eva Rosenberg Memorial Scholarship listed below. This scholarship does not apply only to French students: Eva Rosenberg was a valued German and French instructor in the Department of Languages and Cultures from 1979 to 1999.

Eva Rosenberg Memorial Scholarship

Type: Scholarship

Value: Variable

Number: One

Eligibility: Awarded to a full-time student who is a single parent and who will be enrolled in the second, third or fourth year of any program in the upcoming fall semester.

Criteria: 1) Academic excellence
2) Financial need

Application: Available online