

Canadian Council for Small Business & Entrepreneurship

Mount Royal University is home of the Canadian Council for Small Business & Entrepreneurship (CCSBE) secretariat, the only national membership-based organization in Canada whose goals are to promote and advance the development of small business and entrepreneurship through research, education and training, networking and dissemination of scholarly & policy oriented information.

If you are interested in learning more about this organization or would like to be a member, follow the links at <http://www.ccsbe.org>

The organization was established in 1979 as the first affiliate of the International Council for Small Business (ICSB). Its members include academics, educators, representatives of small business support organizations, researchers, entrepreneurs, government officials, students of entrepreneurship, and policy makers. Membership offers a journal subscription, electronic newsletter, magazine, information and special rates on national and international activities and conferences, etc.
