Advising for International Experiences and Study Abroad

Five Fs – the barriers to study abroad:

	Examples:	What could this look like in advising context?	How to work with your students to find solutions?
Fit	Issues with transfer credit, best 'window' to study abroad
Finances	Costs for self-financing students, loss of income
Faculty and Advisor Support	Lack of awareness of opportunities and encouragement
Family and Friends	Commitments at home, family obligations, lack of support
Fear	Safety concerns, FOMO

Taking your possible solutions, think about how this translates into high impact advising practices.
List 3 possible practices that you can implement in your everyday advising practice:
