

Restage Home Staging

Maximize Selling Price, Minimize Selling Time

Designers assistant / Warehouse organizer

Job Description:

We're looking for a long term individual that is looking to learn and grow with our company. Restage Home Staging is a Calgary born and bred company founded in 2002. We have the distinct privilege of being one of the pioneering staging companies in Canada.

Staging is the art of designing a property to help show scale, character, and to help the buyer envision a lifestyle. Restage turns houses into homes, while maximizing the selling price and minimizing the selling time.

A designers assistant's main goal is to help our designers with organizing, packing items, and putting items away to ensure efficiency and productivity to continue producing our award winning designs.

The ideal candidate is someone who appreciates and understands design, has great attention to detail, great organization skills, and someone who is willing to put in the warehouse hours to learn and grow into a full time designer.

Successful applicants will:

- Be a self starter who is highly motivated
- Be highly attentive to detail and be an asset to our team
- Have a great attitude and willing to go above and beyond
- Be a great communicator and team player
- Be a highly organized person
- Have a valid drivers license and own a vehicle
- Speak fluent English
- Have a great sense of humour and not take life to seriously

Job Duties:

- Warehouse organization of items coming in and out
- Putting away items in their correct place and keeping spaces clean
- Assisting our designers with packing up items
- Ensuring only items in good condition are being used
- Ensuring all items are clean, and cleaning them when necessary
- Always looking for the next task to constantly want to improve

Here at Restage we are a strong team based company and we are looking for our next up and coming designer who wants to learn and grow in a hands-on environment.

Room for growth is guaranteed to the right individual. All candidates will be considered.

Job Type: Full-time, Monday - Friday, 9am-5pm

Starting wage: $17/hr
