SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS EACH APPLICATION TO BE SUPPORTED BY ORIGINAL WORK

- Read the description of the award above to find out about eligibility and other criteria.
- Identify yourself on the application form, NOT the original written work that accompanies it. Submissions will be subject, as far as reasonably possible, to a blind-vetting process. To this end, submissions that name or otherwise identify their authors may be disqualified from consideration.
- Select and revise outstanding original written work of 3000 words maximum produced for an appropriate course in the last academic year. Your submission should be free from error. It must not feature any grades, comments, or handwritten alterations. Poetry should be submitted in a portfolio of 6-10 pieces and formatted as deemed appropriate. Prose should be typed, double-spaced, and printed on white letter-sized paper, preferably on one side only. Font sizes and margin widths should be standard. Pages should be numbered. Do not duplicate original work submitted in support of two or more applications. The committee has discretion to consider eligible submissions across awards in each of the following categories: ESSAY WRITING or CREATIVE WRITING.
- Format your outstanding original written work for anonymous submission as follows:
 - Use a RUNNING HEADER to identify the submission by a short title corresponding to that given below. DO NOT put your name on the submission.
 - Use a RUNNING FOOTER to identify the submission as KALEIDOSCOPE.
- Submit the completed application, along with original written work, to the Department of English, Languages, and Cultures (EA3146) by 30 April.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy: The personal information provided on, or with, this form is collected under the authority of the Post-Secondary Learning Act and the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act in the Province of Alberta. This information will be used for academic administration, the administration of Mount Royal support services, scholarship and financial aid awards, marketing and recruitment activities, and in compliance with data sharing agreements with the Students Association of Mount Royal University. Questions can be directed to the Department of English, Languages, & Cultures, Mount Royal University, 4825 Mount Royal Gate SW, Calgary, Alberta, Canada, T3E 6K6. Phone: 403.440.5912.

Literary Kaleidoscope Society: Literary Kaleidoscope, Calgary, is a longstanding volunteer organization of and for book-lovers that supports reading, discussion and writing through monthly meetings, guest speakers, and by offering annual awards to graduate and undergraduate students who have produced the best creative and critical work at the University of Calgary and Mount Royal University. For more information, please go to LITERARY KALEIDOSCOPE, CALGARY. The Department of English, Languages, & Cultures expresses profound gratitude to the Literary Kaleidoscope Society for its generous support.

Mount Royal Awards: Most awards are centrally administered. However, applications for the writing awards are to be submitted directly to the Department of English, Languages, & Cultures. Please consult MRU SCHOLARSHIPS & BURSARIES for a full list of potential awards as well as additional information on relevant policies and procedures. While the application deadline for most awards is 01 March, the deadline for applications to the Department of English, Languages, & Cultures is 30 April.

English Writing Awards: Submissions will be subject, as far as reasonably possible, to a blind-vetting process. Once the deadline for applications has closed, the Department of English, Languages, & Cultures will sort submissions into two categories—ESSAY WRITING and CREATIVE WRITING—and convene, as necessary for the purposes of adjudication, one or more selection committees, each consisting of at least three faculty members. Each submission will be considered for all of the awards for which it is eligible. On this basis, the committee has the discretion to consider outstanding creative writing (or outstanding essay writing) across awards so long as the submissions in question meet all corresponding eligibility and other criteria. The committee will not normally recommend two or more awards be granted in recognition of the same piece of original work, however. If no entry within a category merits distinction as outstanding, the Department reserves the right not to designate an award winner. After the Department has reached its decision, it will report on the appropriate form to the Student Awards Office which is responsible for reviewing selections, verifying eligibility, and notifying award winners. Only successful applicants will receive notification usually in June or July. At the end of the adjudication process, written submissions will NOT be returned; instead, they will be recycled in a confidential manner. Applicants may, however, be invited to submit their work for publication.

The writing awards are payable only upon return to study at Mount Royal University in the fall semester.
