Ways to Internationalize your Degree

Internationalizing your degree is an excellent way to differentiate yourself upon graduation. Participating in international opportunities allows you to develop cross-cultural skills, learn new languages, apply your skills in a different country and increases your global awareness and ability to live and think as a global citizen.

Ways you can internationalize your degree at MRU include:

- International Exchanges - MRU allows students to study abroad for one semester to over 57 institutions in 27 courses around the world. Students are given the opportunity to experience a different culture, gain international skills, promote and expand their international understanding and develop new friendships - all while working towards their degree.
- Field Schools - gives you an opportunity to experience authentic and dynamic learning in an "extended field trip" environment. Courses are offered off-campus, and can be from a few weeks to a semester in length, depending on the subject.
- International Work Experience - take your job skills abroad! Students can take on new and diverse responsibilities in a work environment, develop an international network, experience a different culture, learn a foreign language and overcome the challenges of living and working abroad.

BBA Terminology

The BBA is made up of:

- 16 core courses (that all BBA students must take)
- 10 major courses (dependent on the major/concentration you choose)
- 10 General Education courses (the breadth of your degree)
- 4 elective courses (courses of your choice, but could include BBA minor or Honours coursework, exploratory coursework to help you choose your major, further coursework in your intended field, international exchange courses, and field trip opportunities)

What are...

Pre-requisites - courses that must successfully be completed PRIOR to taking a higher-level course (i.e. ACCT 2121 is a pre-requisite for ACCT 3224).

Co-requisites - courses that can be taken concurrently with other coursework (i.e. LSCM 3403 is a pre or co-requisite for MGMT 5333).

Recommended preparation - where having prior coursework in the subject may prove beneficial to students, but is not required for higher-level courses.

Advice from your Advisors

- Consider a balanced approach when picking your courses
  - * Take core, major, general education and elective courses each semester.
  - * Consider your personal strengths and weaknesses when picking courses to achieve a reasonable courseload and workload.
  - * Keep in mind your commitments outside of the classroom (work, student clubs, volunteering, etc.) when determining your schedule of courses.
- Communicate any difficulties that you are having with your professor - the earlier you identify any issues, the earlier you can address them!
- If you aren't sure what to major in, use your electives to explore areas of interest - the earlier you do this, the earlier you can declare your major and plan the rest of your degree.
- The majority of core BBA courses are offered in the Fall, Winter and Spring semesters - but major specific courses may only be offered once per year or only in the Fall and Winter. Consult with your Advisor if you have questions.
