

BBA TIP SHEET

FIVE REASONS TO DECLARE YOUR MAJOR EARLY

This information is provided to Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) students to provide further information about topics of interest to students. For students in other programs, please speak directly to your faculty advisor for more information about how this information may pertain to your particular degree.

1. Updated MRUGradu8

- easier to know which courses to take
- easier to acquire a Letter of Permission

2. Better communication

- receive targeted communications for that discipline
- be the first to know about related opportunities and changes to the program

3. Flexibility

- you can 'undeclare' if you change your mind at any time

4. Better access to course offerings

- some course sections are restricted to students who have declared that major/minor
- departments rely on numbers of declared students to gauge the number of sections to offer. More accurate numbers of students in the program helps us offer the right number of sections.

5. Access to scholarships

- some scholarships are intended for students studying a specific discipline
