Deferred Final Examination Policy

The authority to grant or deny a deferred final examination rests with the Chair of the department in which the course is offered. Under no circumstances is the deferred examination to be granted after a student has written the original examination. A student who is unable, for a valid reason, to write a final examination at the scheduled time may apply for a deferred examination. Valid reasons for requesting deferral of a final examination include but are not restricted to: personal illness, bereavement, personal injury, unavoidable and unanticipated demands in caring for dependents. The department Chair may also consider other compelling reasons that are outside of the student's control. The application MUST be supported by appropriate documentation.

If the intended absence is due to religious conviction, the Registrar and instructor must be informed in writing of the conflict at least two weeks prior to the date of the examination. If a student becomes ill or is notified of an incident that creates severe emotional distress during an examination, he or she should report at once to the invigilating instructor, hand in the unfinished examination paper and request that it be cancelled. If illness is the cause, he or she MUST report directly to Health Services so that any subsequent application for a deferred examination may be supported by a medical certificate. Should Health Services be closed, a medical certificate MUST be obtained from an off-campus physician. The instructor and department Chair should be informed of the circumstances in writing; the medical certificate must be delivered to the Office of the Registrar within 48-hours after the scheduled examination.

Students who have more than two exams scheduled on any calendar day may request and shall be granted a deferral of the third and subsequent examination(s) on that day by the appropriate instructor responsible for the examination. The same condition applies if two or more exams are scheduled at the same time.
