

Research Confidentiality: Ethics and Law Conflicts Procedure

If you are served with a search warrant for research data please contact MRU Legal Services immediately at ext. 5602 for advice on how to proceed. The requested data/documents should be placed in a sealed envelope and you should indicate on the envelope that you are asserting privilege over the contents. This is particularly important where the research data was collected with a promise of confidentiality being made to the study participants.