The Bachelor of Arts Undeclared is offered by the Faculty of Arts as a way to begin a Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree if you are unsure about which Arts major to complete.

The Faculty of Arts offers seven (7) Arts majors to choose from: Anthropology, English, History, Policy Studies, Psychology, Sociology, Spanish

You must declare a major before you complete 20 courses.

- For Anthropology, English, History, Policy Studies, Sociology, and Spanish you will need to submit a major declaration form to the Office of the Registrar as soon as you decide on the major.
- For Psychology you must apply for admission during the early admission period through the official Mount Royal application process.

Each BA degree requires courses in a major, General Education and electives. Depending on the major, you must complete at least 16 major courses, 12 General Education courses, and up to 12 electives.

Undeclared students are encouraged to explore courses within the seven Arts majors and General Education. You may also wish to complete some electives, also known as open options, as a BA program has up to 12 electives.

Refer to the Academic Calendar for specific course requirements, course descriptions and graduation requirements needed for each major.

Options available in a BA

- Cooperative Education – Twelve months of relevant work experience, taken in coordination with your credit courses
- Minors – Available minors from the faculties of Arts, Business, Communications and Science and Technology
- International Study Abroad – Study a term or year abroad at one of the MRU partner universities or at a university of your choice
- Travel Studies – Credit course(s) offered from various departments for Spring/Summer term with an MRU professor
- Honours – Available for students with at least a 3.0 GPA or higher
- Double majors – Complete two majors offered in the Faculty of Arts

General Education

All degree programs at MRU require General Education courses. These are good courses to take to explore the various subject areas that MRU can offer and one way to decide on a major/program.

Approved General Education courses can be found in the academic calendar and online at: mtroyal.ca/gened/courses
