

Wonderful World of Music

We'll explore the connection between music, speech and movement. You will be actively involved in making music in a group. You'll try out different instruments and explore the power of drumming.

When you finish this course, you will:

- » have made music in a group
- » understand musical concepts and terms
- » have expanded your social and community contacts

More than just a class

- » Take part in interactive learning activities
- » Build self-confidence
- » Experience campus life at Mount Royal University and the beautiful new Taylor Centre for the Performing Arts
